

Wildlife Heritage Festival Exhibitors

St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge: Information table for exhibitor location and refuge events.

National Wild Turkey Federation: Display of publications, habitat information, bio-facts, turkey calls, calling demonstrations, educational materials and a live turkey will be present.

Ducks Unlimited: An exciting educational display and raffle.

Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission: Information on Hunter Safety Courses, Youth Hunting Program of Florida and Becoming an Outdoors – Woman workshops.

Wakulla County 4-H: Promotional booth with information.

Apalachee Audubon: Interactive display board with pictures, challenging bird identification materials, information on how to advocacy for the environment, membership information and bird walks near the display area.

Big Bend Sierra Club: Information and membership applications.

Wildlife Art by George Weymouth: Wildlife paintings and sculptures. Some items will be for sale.

Florida Native Plant Society: Informational booth on Florida's native plants and the Florida Native Plant Society. Native plants will be available for purchase.

Florida Park Service: A historical demonstration on fish smoking and salt making.

Mission San Luis: Information and hands on activities for children.

Florida National Scenic Trail: Information on the Florida National Scenic Trail.

Tallahassee Time Travelers: A reenactment of historical outdoor life.

Jefferson Longrifles: Primitive campsite for colonial time period and black powder firearm demonstration.

Florida Big Bend Flyfishers: Aspects of flyfishing, including casting and fly tying.

Cast Net tying and casting demonstrations: Hands on demonstration with nets and poles.

Nature Kids: Information on live animal educational programs.

Tallahassee Museum: Information and animals.

Division of Forestry: Information on wildfire prevention, guest visit by Smokey Bear.

Pointing Dog Demonstration: Watch a pointer at work.

FSU Outdoor Pursuits: Leave no trace informational table, brochures, and flyers.

Florida Bowhunters Council: Information and demonstrations.

Photo Demonstrations: Refuge volunteers will give photo demonstrations on outdoor photography.

St Marks Refuge Association will provide free hot dog lunch while supplies last.